

Do you know anyone that simply loves to be a dental hygienist? Meet Brandi Hooker Evans from Idaho, USA. Brandi acquired her formal education from Idaho State University, most recently, a master's degree in Health Education. Brandi has served the Idaho Dental Hygienists' Association as President as well as her local Portneuf Valley Dental Hygiene Society. She has enjoyed over a decade as a clinician in private practice. Brandi treasured her time as clinical dental hygiene faculty at Idaho State University and served on the ISU Dental Hygiene Advisory Board. Currently, Brandi owns and operates a consulting and continuing education company, is a Key Opinion Leader for Colgate and works clinically. Her enthusiasm for the dental profession is contagious and uplifting. Join her in class and add delight to your career!